Note: Certificate of Completion for Vermont's online programs are issued by email from REcampus following completion of the program. Quality Workshops has obtained Vermont Real Estate Licensing Commission approval for QW students to use RECampus emailed notice of completion as proof of completion. QW STUDENTS DO NOT NEED ADDITIONAL PROOF FROM QUALITY WORKSHOPS other than the RECampus Partnership emailed notice of course completion. It is up to each student to maintain their proof of completion from RECampus. If at a later date the Vermont's Real Estate Commission requires proof of completion and the RECampus notice of completion is not available, students will need to contact Quality Workshops at support@qualityworkshops.com for a replacement copy.

If the course provider is required to report the completion, the school will follow state guidelines for reporting your completion to the state commission. Please note that, in most jurisdictions, this letter is not considered a "course completion certificate" for admission to the licensing exam. If you have any questions, please contact the school administrator or your state officials (see above).

Should you experience technical difficulties, please contact REcampus Technical Support.

Thank you for choosing us as your educational provider! We hope you have enjoyed your online learning experience and will choose us again for your educational needs.

Sincerely, Quality Workshops
REcampus Partner School

NOTE: If for some reason a copy was not received, send a request for a copy to support@qualityworkshops.com - This is all Vermont needs for proof of completion or Cert. of Completion.
